

TOP SECRET

SBL Academy – English Summer Home Study 2023

Do you have what it takes to become a world-class spy?
Could you be the next James Bond?
Will you be the hero that saves the world from the next supervillain?

Your task this summer is to invent, design and explain you own brand new spy invention. Using the example below, come up with your own idea ready to bring to your first English lesson.

Example:

Success Criteria:

- original idea linked to theme of spying
- neat drawing and handwriting
- at least four explanatory text boxes with accurate spelling and punctuation
- Use the template on page 2 to complete your design

Stuck for ideas? How might one of the objects here be adapted into a spy invention?

TOP SECRET

Use the template below to design your spy invention. Remember:

- Come up with an original idea linked to theme of spying
- Your handwriting and drawing must be neat
- You need to fill in all four explanatory text boxes with accurate spelling and punctuation (there is space underneath your drawing to add more information if you want to!)
